CHAIRMAN OF THE JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF
WASHINGTON

25 January 1964

Dear Pat:

In late 1962, we had an exchange of correspondence concerning [redacted] who was interested in obtaining a position in the Agency. He was a former wartime aide of mine and also had worked for the Agency in the Far East.

STAT
By your letter of 7 December 1962, you reported that you had no position which would be appropriate for [redacted].

STAT
He called on me again today to discuss his possible utility to the Agency [redacted]
[redacted] He has had some contact on the subject with Mr. Tracy Barnes who could inform you of the matter if you wish to get into it.

I am writing this note to call your attention to the possibility of using a volunteer who appears advantageously placed to be of service.

Sincerely,

Taylor
MAXWELL D. TAYLOR
Chairman
Joint Chiefs of Staff

Lieutenant General Marshall S. Carter
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency

Remarks:

Per our telecon I am sending you the attached.
The General has since indicated that he definitely wants to reply to Taylor. Would appreciate getting from you or Tracy either a draft reply or the guts of something I can draft.
